Jessica Hopkins joined our team in November as Arcadia Branch Manager! She loves making the library a vibrant and welcoming place for the community. She is thrilled to be working in an environment full of books where one can learn about pretty much everything!

Jessica is an Oakland University alum, where she studied art history and museum studies. An avid reader, Jessica particularly enjoys memoirs, art books, cookbooks, and fiction. Some of her favorite fiction writers include Margaret Atwood, Jeffrey Eugenides, and Donna Tartt.

In her free time, Jessica likes to practice speaking French, try out new cooking recipes, hike the many trails of M-22, and cut up old magazines to paste into collages.
